“I’ve been trained by and worked with many trainers both locally and internationally and believe Rod to be one of the best in the world”

Stuart Goodfellow
Certified Business Coach

rod matthews

Rod has an international reputation as a leading authority on change and human performance and has unashamedly been described as 'the best trainer in Australia'. He skilfully is able to engage groups of people and move them from a place of confusion and sometimes even hostility to a place of confidence, clarity and consensus. Rod 'gets the message across' by engaging his audience with wit and intelligence and with entertaining and practical training methodologies.
